ELECTOR REGISTRATION. Qualified electors who are not on the List of Registered Electors may register on voting day by producing at least two pieces of identification (one must have a signature) to prove identity and residency, and by making a solemn declaration that you:

- are a Canadian citizen (no landed immigrants or corporations); and
- are age 18 or older at the time of voting; and
- have lived in BC for at least 6 months immediately preceding registering to vote; and
- have lived (Resident Elector) OR have been the registered owner of real property (Non-Resident Property Elector) in the District of Squamish for at least 30 days immediately preceding registering to vote; AND
- have not been otherwise been disqualified from voting.

Acceptable ID includes:

- BC Driver's Licence
- BC Identification Card
- BC Gold Care Card
- Social Insurance Card
- Utility Bill for electricity, natural gas, water, telephone or cable
- District of Squamish Property Tax Notice
- Financial Institution Credit or Debit Card
- ICBC Vehicle Insurance Documents
- BC Care Card
- Citizenship Card

Non-Resident Property Electors wishing to register on Voting Day are required to provide:

- two pieces of identification (one must have your signature); and
- proof of ownership of the property (ie. recent copy of the Land Title Search Certificate available from the Government Agent or agencies with BC Online or the Certificate of Indefeasible Title); and
- written consent from the majority of all of the owners, if there are multiple owners of the property, stating that you are the one owner who is designated as the Non-Resident Property Elector for that property.

* To register as a non-resident property elector phone the Election Office for further information about documents required.

Note:

- (1) the owner and multiple owners must not be holding the property in trust for a corporation or another trust. There is no corporate vote.
- (2) Non-Resident Property Electors may only vote once in Squamish regardless of the number of properties they own.
- (3) District of Squamish Tax notices may not show all owners of a property. Documentation from the Land Titles Office is required.

VOTERS LIST

Until the close of general voting on November 15, 2008, a copy of the Voters List will, upon signature, be available for public inspection in the Administrative Services Department, Municipal Hall, 37955 Second Avenue, Squamish from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Thursdays, and Friday until 4:30 p.m., except statutory holidays.

OMITTING PERSONAL INFORMATION FROM THE VOTERS LIST

PUBLIC NOTICE - CAMPAIGN ORGANIZERS

A campaign organizer is an organization or an individual that undertakes or intends to undertake an election campaign to support or oppose a candidate or elector organization or proposed course of action advocated by a candidate or elector organization that is not run directly by the candidate or elector organization. A campaign organizer is also an individual who accepts, or intends to accept, campaign contributions in relation to the campaign.

Campaign organizers are bound by the same campaign fundraising restrictions and disclosure rules as candidates and elector organizations. The specific requirements regarding campaign finances are detailed in Division 8 – Campaign Financing – Local Government Act.

Any organization or individual, who intends to undertake an election campaign, as part of the 2008 Local Government Elections, is requested to contact the Chief Election Officer to obtain additional information regarding these requirements.
